

CHANGING LANDSCAPE FOR STARTUPS TOPIC FOR

PAUL NICOLAI'S CPE PROGRAM

Springfield, Mass. – Startups face a host of issues, from intellectual property and risk management to contracting and crowdfunding, and must operate amid a changing business and regulatory environment, according to Attorney Paul Nicolai. He presented a program on the startup landscape at the CPE Forum in Westfield, MA on November 29.

Business professionals, certified public accountants and others seeking continuing professional education credits received three hours of CPE credits for the afternoon session held on the third floor of 16 Union Avenue in Westfield. For more information about future programs, visit www.cpeForum.org.

Paul Nicolai is president of Nicolai Law Group, P.C., which he founded in 1988. The attorneys of Nicolai Law Group, P.C. represent businesses and their owners in Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Hampshire and Washington, D.C., using decades of insight and experience to provide customized strategies to meet their clients' specific legal and business needs. Nicolai Law Group professionals deliver a quality in-house counsel experience to their growing business clients through prompt, effective responses.